Principal's Pen

Welcome to November and I hope that with the time change over the weekend, you were able to get a few extra moments of sleep. It doesn't always work out that way, but at least it is brighter in the morning when students come to school.

It is hard to believe that basketball season is here, starting with games against Grace Christian in Fayetteville Tuesday and followed by our annual tip off tournament Friday and Saturday. You are encouraged to come by and support your JVB, JVG, and Varsity girls and boys. Under the direction of head Coaches Starr, Knoedler and Roye, we are looking forward to a great season.

If you do not have a regular church home, we want to encourage you to find one. We encourage you to be faithful in attendance to a Bible preaching church, however for those who are sporadic in attendance, or not attending, consider visiting us for our annual "Friend Day" with evangelist Adrian Burden. Details are listed in this newsletter and you won't want to miss him.

Have a great week!
Dr. C
