

November 6, 2018 Principal's Pen

November is officially here, Daylight Savings Time has occurred and our first basketball games have been played. Our tip off tournament takes place this weekend, and our annual honor society induction and Thanksgiving Feast takes place the following Friday.

I trust that, although this is a very busy time of year, we will all take time to reflect on God's goodness and the many things for which we are eternally grateful.

Stay encouraged and have a great week.

Dr. C
