Principal's Pen

I am so grateful for Jeff Bush's wonderful messages that we enjoyed on the 7 - 12 grade level for our spiritual emphasis week. I hope you were able to catch a few of them from our facebook page. Jeff also did an exciting missionary themed chapel for our elementary students last Wednesday.

As we enter our third week of school, we thank the Lord for last week's spiritual emphasis week and fun time, a wonderful volleyball tip off tournament, and the anticipation of another great week ahead in which to see our children grow academically and spiritually.

We are only a few months away from our mid-October annual golf tournament. There is truly something for every one of our families to do in order to make the event a complete success.

Grandparents Day is just around the corner on September 9, and students are already rehearsing their parts for this fun event. Grandparent invitations are being sent home today.

Stay encouraged and thanks for continuing your involvement in our students' daily success.
