Principal's Pen

Two weeks of school are left before our students and families enjoy Christmas vacation. I encourage students to stay focused and finish the semester well as, amidst all the busyness of the season, 7 - 12 grade final exams for this semester take place the last three days of next week. I want to express a big thank you to all who supported our BBQ dinner and craft fair. Special appreciation is due to Glenda Griffin as she led our PIE participants to contact vendors and coordinate the event. The BBQ was delicious and cooked by Pat Nyman's father-in-law.

Don't miss our annual Christmas program this Friday! It will be a delightful program of music and speech performed by our students! This is also an opportunity to share in our annual Teacher Christmas Gift offering.

Stay encouraged and don't forget to enjoy this wonderful season.
