Principal's Pen

Greetings from Week 2 of our BBCS online education. As I expressed yesterday in my school cast email, I appreciate the hard work and cooperative spirit among faculty, students and parents. Our BBCS family is indeed all in this together as we rely on God's providence and keep praying for each other.

I encourage you to add your prayer requests so that we can all better pray for each other in this challenging time. I have embedded a Google Doc in which you can share your prayer requests with each other.

Please keep up the communication with your child's teachers, and please inform us if there is any way we can help you. I expect that this week will be much smoother than last, but with the blessings of technology, there are often some problems; so allow us to help you through those opportunities.

Stay encouraged,

Dr. C

Chapel:

Since we are unable to host a live chapel this week, this recorded chapel by Kevin Williams, mostly designed for 7 - 12 grade students, will help you with the important subject of having a spiritual checkup. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=puB2dYmvQW8>

The following is copied from the Henry County Board of Education website:

All Henry County Schools buildings/facilities are closed through April 10. Students and teachers will be utilizing Remote Learning through April 3. The district will observe Spring Break April 6-10 and return to regular learning/operations on Monday, April 13, barring any directives from government or health officials. If you have questions, please email your teacher, administrator or district official directly, and we will respond as soon as possible.

BBCS will follow the same policy. Stay tuned and keep praying for our community as we anticipate reopening school on Monday, April. 13, if it is deemed safe and wise to do so.
